

For Immediate Release

ANDY MILKEY NAMED NATIONAL SALES MANAGER FOR DAHLE CUTTING & OFFICE PRODUCTS

Peterborough, NH, November 1, 2007 – Dahle North America, a world leader in professional paper cutters and office products, would like to welcome Andy Milkey as their new National Sales Manager. Milkey arrives at Dahle highly qualified with over twenty years of sales experience. In his new role, Andy will be responsible for developing sales objectives and strategies to help maximize sales in Dahle’s Cutting and Office Products Division.

To help accomplish these tasks, Milkey will coordinate the efforts of six Independent Manufacturer’s Rep groups located throughout the United States. Motivating these Reps, improving their product knowledge, and providing sales resources will be the key for these reps to effectively represent the Dahle product line. Andy will further act as a liaison between Dahle’s independent reps, our dealers and our customers.

“Andy is a seasoned professional and a welcome addition to the Dahle family,” said Scott Prokop, VP and General Manager, Dahle North America, Inc. “I believe Andy will provide a fresh sales perspective to Dahle and continue to establish Dahle as a leader in cutting and office products.”

Andy will work out of Dahle’s North American headquarters located in Peterborough, NH. He can be contacted at (800) 243-8145 or by eMail amilkey@dahle.com.

Dahle North America, Inc. is a fully integrated manufacturer and distributor of professional trimmers and office products with a brand name recognized for quality and precision. Dahle markets more than 300 products, including paper cutters and trimmers, cutting mats and scissors, and pencil sharpeners for the photography, art, and office products markets.

For more information on Dahle products please call (800) 243-8145 or visit their website at www.dahle.com.